Sri R.H.Chishti, M.A., LL.B.,
Joint Secretary to Government,
Uttar Pradesh.

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, Madras.

COOPERATIVE DEPARTMENT. Dated Lucknow, October 16, 1959.

Sir,

I am directed to enclose for the information of your State Government a copy of this Government's letter No.B/159/XXXII-[illegible]-1958, dated October 9, 1959, addressed to the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India. The point at issue is whether in cases where a body of persons in a particular area form themselves into a Co-operative Society for a Specific economic purpose which would be defeated if a few persons (presumed to be in a small minority) do not operate through the Society such persons in the minority should be compelled by law to operate through such Society even though it may be open to them not to become members of the Society.

I am to enquire if this question has been under the consideration of your Govt. and it may propose to introduce any legislation of this kind.

Yours Faithfully,

R.H.HXSHTI
Joint Secretary.

Secretary to Government.

To

The Joint Secretary to the Government of Uttar Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh,
Lucknow.

Dated, Fort St. George, 13th November 1950.

Sir,

Sub: Co-operative Societies-Use of compulsion by legislation.
Ref: Your letter No.159 (1)/XII B-525-1948 dated 16th October 1950.

---

I am directed to state that the question referred to in your letter cited was considered in connection with resolution 3 of the 15th Conference of Regrs. of C.S. The R.C.S., Madras, then stated that, so far there had been no great need to resort to compulsion and that if the need therefor, should arise, in respect of any special form of Co-operative activity, he would come up to the Government with necessary proposals for legislation. In view of this, the Government considered that no action was necessary on the resolution. The question has again now been examined in connection with Recommendation 1 of the Technical Meeting of Cooperatives held at Lucknow in October-November 1949 and it is proposed to adhere to the view already taken in the matter. This Govt. do not therefore propose to introduce any legislation on the subject for the present.

Yours Faithfully,

P.S.Viswanatha Ayyar,
Secretary to Government.
